

The Healing Oasis Wellness Center has partnered with Cutting Edge Laser Technologies to offer an expanded educational experience while learning veterinary rehabilitation.

Sturtevant, WI (July 18th, 2019) – The Healing Oasis Wellness Center and its faculty are proud to announce its newest educational partner, Cutting Edge Laser Technologies, based in Rochester, NY.

About the Educational Institution:

The Healing Oasis Wellness Center LLC is a recognized educational institution by the Department of Safety & Professional Service – State of WI Educational Approval Program, and accredited under the United States Dept. of Education (through the Accrediting Council for Continuing Education and Training). The institution has also been approved by many national organizations including the WI State Approving Agency [SAA] for Veteran's Education Benefits, Dept. of Veterans Affairs [DVA]) for the GI Bill ®, College of Animal Chiropractors, American Veterinary Chiropractic Association, MyCAA, AAVSB-RACE, among others.

The credentials of the institution are unique, but it also helps to provide credibility to the school, protect prospective students, and to elevate the standards of the profession. To learn more about any of the postgraduate state approved certification programs for licensed health care professionals, visit WWW.HEALINGOASIS.EDU, or you can also send email at CONTACT@HEALINGOASIS.EDU.

About Cutting Edge Laser Technologies

Based in Rochester, New York, Cutting Edge is the leading provider of laser technology for the Veterinary profession worldwide. The company that was founded in 2001 with a simple mission; help Veterinarians integrate laser technology into their practice that can improve the quality of medicine while also improving the bottom line. The company is committed to designing and selling products that specifically address the unique challenges of the veterinary profession. The executive management team has over 60 years combined experience delivering advanced technologies to Veterinarians. Now in its second decade, Cutting Edge has over 4,500 Veterinarians using its products worldwide. Cutting Edge holds leadership positions in both laser surgery and laser therapy. To contact Cutting Edge, call 1-800-889-4184 or visit www.celasers.com.

Cutting Edge Laser Technologies and the Healing Oasis Wellness Center share common core values like leadership, commitment, experience, and dedication. There is no better place to show the core values than when educating licensed health care providers wanting to learn and provide rehabilitation therapy. By joining forces between an accredited educational institution and a company with outstanding products, customer service and commitment to education, it helps to provide the science and clinical application of this health care modality in a general practice and those that would like to learn and provide rehabilitation services.

