

Take advantage of this new solution tailored for contract harvesters

Gallagher is one of Australia's – and the world's – largest insurance broking and risk management companies.

In partnership with Australian Custom Harvesters Inc. Gallagher has launched an insurance solution specific for Harvest contractors.

The features and benefits of this new facility include:

- Competitive rates
- Specialty wording including business interruption with sub-limit options of $25,000 or $50,000
- Flexible excesses
- No individual cap on the sum insured for your plant

Since we are a full-service insurance broker we have the capacity to package the insurance requirements for the whole of your operation, including your public liability, service and transport vehicles and depot.

Having all your insurance managed together by one of our professional brokers can save you time and money.

We can deliver competitive rates, while still providing superior cover

Gallagher's new contract harvesting facility is suitable for all types of harvesting machinery – from broadacre and cotton to specialty crops like grapes, turf, fruit and nut crops.

We are proud partners with Australian Custom Harvesters (ACH), a peak organisation formed to represent the interests of professional contract harvesters across Australia. Gallagher is offering this facility exclusively to ACH members.

If you're not already a member, that's ok, if you're happy with our quote we can help arrange your membership with this professional network of contract harvester operators, so you can share in the benefits provided by the network and their industry reputation for high service standards.
