

This large elegant home has a grand heritage front and entry which only gets better, the further you enter. This home boasts a range of great outdoor private living spaces off both living areas and bedrooms. The kitchen is complete with a scullery which leads through to the laundry, keeping this area hidden from sight. This wonderful home also has a large separate lounge including a fireplace which backs out onto another outdoor living space. There is an extra toilet between living areas making it perfect for guests. With all of these features this home will tick all the boxes.
