Los Angeles Business Journal Awards CallFire Inc. with a “2017 Best Places to Work in Los Angeles” Distinction

This is CallFire’s fourth consecutive honor in the medium-sized companies category

SANTA MONICA, CA, Aug. 7, 2017 - CallFire Inc. was recognized today by the Los Angeles Business Journal (LABJ) as one of their “2017 Best Places to Work in Los Angeles”. The award captures employees’ perceptions of their own companies and is the culmination of an annual survey commissioned by LABJ and the Best Companies Group.

In the survey, employees rate their own organizations on their commitment to leadership, culture, career growth opportunities, engagement, and more. The questionnaire is open to all companies, nonprofits, and NGOs in Los Angeles County. There are additional categories for small and large organizations.

“We’re tremendously humbled to have been awarded this honor,” said Punit Shah, Co-Founder and Chief Data Scientist at CallFire. “Our mission is to provide a fun and engaging environment where our team can reach their career goals while creating superior products and delivering top-notch customer service.

Our mission will never be over, but this announcement shows our dedication is paying off.”

CallFire’s previous accolades include winning gold in the Company of the Year - Telecommunications category at the 2015 American Business Awards, recognition in Deloitte’s 2014 Fast 500™ companies list, and being a finalist of the Best Cloud Automation category at the 2014-15 Cloud Awards.

CallFire provides an array of text, email, and calling solutions for small and medium-sized businesses.
