All options offered by Kings Court Trust include obtaining the Grant of Probate. In options 1 – 3, the Executor or Administrator retains the legal and financial responsibility.

At Kings Court Trust, we can administer all estates.

We have the expertise, knowledge and tools in place to assist during the probate and estate administration process, regardless of whether there is a Will or not. This guide talks through the four options available to Executors and Administrators.

Option one: Grant only

WHAT IS THIS?

We can obtain the Grant of Probate on behalf of the named Executor, if there is a Will, or Administrator, if there is no Will.

This allows the Executor or Administrator to collect in funds, pay any outstanding debts and then distribute and/or transfer the assets to the beneficiaries. The Grant only service is ideal for a straightforward estate that does not have any Inheritance Tax to pay.

An example being where the deceased died with a gross estate valued under £325,000, subject to the criteria as outlined. Or, the deceased died with a gross estate valued under £3million and it is inherited by their surviving spouse, civil partner or charity. Or, the deceased is the second to die of a couple and the estate is valued under £650,000 and there is some or all of the transferable Nil Rate Band (NRB) allowance available from the pre-deceased spouse's or civil partner's estate, so there is no Inheritance Tax to pay .

WE WILL:

- Ask the Executor or Administrator to complete a Fact Find, which will ask for key information about the deceased's assets and debts at the date of death.
- Use the Fact Find to prepare the paperwork for the Probate Registry and HMRC (as necessary) for signature.
- Submit the application to the Probate Registry.
- Upon receipt of the Grant of Probate, we will send this to the Executor or Administrator to allow them to complete the process.

Fee of £995 excl. VAT

(excludes Probate Fee)

ANY CRITERIA?

Gross estate must be under £325,000 (under £3million if surviving spouse or charity inheriting) or under £650,000 if the full NRB allowance can be transferred from the pre-deceased spouse's or civil partner's estate

No lifetime gifts of more than £250,000

No overseas assets of more than £100,000

No Trusts set up by deceased in their lifetime with a value of more than £250,000

No need to utilise the Residence Nil Rate Band allowance (either in full or in part)

The legal and financial responsibility remains with the Executor or Administrator. Are you sure you want this personal liability? See Option four for information on our full estate administration service.

Option two: Grant and assets

This option includes all that is referenced in 'Option one: Grant only' on page 2, plus:

There may be some assets that remain in the sole name of the deceased.

If there are a maximum of three assets, we can deal with these for you. This does not include property.

WE WILL:

- As per option one, complete a Fact Find with the Executor or Administrator, prepare the paperwork and submit the application to the Probate Registry.
- Upon receipt of the Grant of Probate, we will collect in the assets for distribution, or transfer them to the beneficiaries depending on the instruction of the Executor or Administrator.
- We will then send you the Grant of Probate to complete the process and pay any debts, if required.

In Option two the legal and financial responsibility remains with the Executor or Administrator.

A maximum of three assets (not including property) for up to two beneficiaries that need collecting in and paying, or transferring

Option three: choose from one of our three Grant, Trust and property solutions

- Grant and transfer of property
- Grant and Trust of property
- Grant and Nil Rate Band Discretionary Trust

The three property and Trust options include all that is referenced in 'Option one: Grant only' on page 2, plus:

If the deceased solely owned property, and this is to be transferred to the beneficiaries, we can assist by preparing the paperwork to effect this.

If the deceased's Will contains a Trust of Property or a Nil Rate Band Discretionary Trust, these types of Trusts need formalising to protect the interests of the ultimate beneficiaries.

WE WILL:

- As per option one, complete a Fact Find with the Executor or Administrator, prepare the paperwork and submit the application to the Probate Registry and send the Executor the Grant of Probate to allow them to complete the process.
- Where property is to be transferred, we will prepare the paperwork to transfer to the beneficiary(s). Where a Declaration of Trust is required or if the property remains unregistered, we will prepare the Declaration of Trust to confirm ownership of the property and register the property with the Land Registry.
- When there is a Property Trust, we will liaise with the appointed Trustees in the Will about the terms of the Trust. We will transfer the deceased's share of the property into the names of the Trustees at the Land Registry. We will also prepare a Declaration of Trust; this document confirms the ownership of the property.
- Where there is a Nil Rate Band Discretionary Trust, we will advise the Trustees of the options available to them to deal with the Trust and prepare the necessary paperwork to effect their instructions.

With all solutions in Option three, the legal and financial responsibility remains with the Executor or Administrator.
