HUD to Reprise PH Repositioning Webinar Series

Today on HUD Exchange, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced that it will again be holding its series of training webinars on repositioning public housing. The aim of the series is to help participants learn various affordable housing strategies to assess their public housing portfolios and determine the best repositioning tool to address their local needs. The four-session series, Introduction to Repositioning for Public Housing, will be held on April 7, April 9, April 14, and April 16, 2020, from 3:00–6:00 p.m. Eastern Time. HUD recommends that participants attend all four sessions, which is essential to completing the course. You can access more information and register for the webinar series here.
