

Self-Sufficiency Service Coordination – Exercise 4

Point of View Checklist Page 1-8

AGREE	DON'T AGREE	STATEMENT
		It's hard to trust
		Residents break the law
		Bad children cause damage in PH
		PHA staff are good decision makers
		Residents should work
		Not reporting income to the PHA is making sure the family has money
		It's hard to trust white people
		Police cause violence
		Residents deserve to have their education paid for by the PHA
		Rent should be half of income
		There is no such thing as gang territory
		Police keep the peace
		All life is sacred
		Graffiti is art
		Gangs give protection
		It's crime not to report income to the PHA
		It's hard to trust the PHA
		PHAs break the law
		Home based businesses in PH cause damage
		Good children are supervised
		Abortion is a legitimate type of birth control
		Rent should be less than it is now
		Gangs are bad
		Graffiti is property damage
		Residents who don't work have personal problems
		Drugs are bad
		Residents a good decision makers
		PHA staff should have their education paid for by their PHA

Self-Sufficiency Service Coordination – Exercise 4

Point of View Checklist Page 1-8

AGREE	DON'T AGREE	STATEMENT
		PHAs should offer residents training and education
		Housing authorities should follow resident recommendations
		It's hard to trust black people
		Children cause damage in public housing
		Rent should be half of income
		Rental assistance should be given to anyone living in the United States
		Residents deserve to have their education paid for by the Housing Authority
		Residents who are quiet in a meeting agree with what is being said
		Good children do well in school
		Drugs cure disease
		Residents are not good decision-makers
		S8 and public housing families should work in exchange for their housing
		Children should work if the family needs money
		Residence make good employees
		Angry and shouting residents are usually not being heard
		PHAs cannot follow resident's recommendations and still do good business
		Rental assistance residents don't need to work for their assistance
		Gangs are not dangerous
		Housing Authority's don't need to offer residence education and training
		Home-based businesses in housing cause damage
		Housing Authorities are good decision-makers
		Rental assistance should be limited to two years
		Rent should be more than it is now
		Residents who don't work have personal problems
		Drugs are illegal
		Rental assistant should be given to anyone living in the United States
		There's no such thing as gang territory
		Bad children don't do well in school

Self-Sufficiency Service Coordination – Exercise 4

Point of View Checklist Page 1-8

AGREE	DON'T AGREE	STATEMENT
		Good residents may not reported income
		Home-based businesses in housing are a good source of income
		Residents are good decision-makers
		Staff deserve to have their education paid for by the housing Authority
		Good residence work
		Lawyers break the law
		It's hard to trust people who are different
		Rental assistance should continue for as long as it's needed
		Children shouldn't work
		Bad residence report all in come
		Not reporting income to the Housing Authority is fraud
		Drugs are illegal
		It's hard to trust
		Residents break the law
		Rental assistance should be given to people who are citizens of the USA
		Residents should work for their assistance
		Housing Authority staff are good decision-makers
		Children should pay for their own education
		Good children are supervised
		Angry and shouting residents are usually not being heard
		Bad children damage property
		Politicians are good decision-makers
		Home-based businesses cause damage in housing
		Parents should support their adult children if needed