Carla provides solutions to mitigate management and personal liability exposures for companies, directors and officers.

Carla specializes in assisting clients to identify and mitigate personal, corporate and professional liability risks. She consults with companies to uncover any liability exposures and then provides solutions to help mitigate those liability exposures.

Carla has been in the insurance industry since 1982. She began her insurance career in the management liability underwriting department for financial institutions. She works with a vast array of clients including multi-hospital healthcare systems, private and public corporations, not-for-profit organizations and independent professionals. With Carla's experience and knowledge she is frequently asked to speak on D&O and Cyber liability risks.

Carla serves on the Board at St. Joseph's Medical Clinic, a free and charitable clinic. She gives back to her community as a cabinet member for the United Way.
