Todd Osborn Joins Infogressive as Vice President of Sales
Infogressive adds a proven, results driven sales leader to the team

Lincoln, NE: Infogressive, Inc. continues to grow in size and in strength with the announced addition of Todd Osborn as Vice President of Sales. Todd has joined the company to lead the sales team to continued growth. Todd Osborn comes with a wealth of experience within the Industry, having spent the last three years at LocateSmarter as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing before transitioning to General manager of Sales at StartNewCo where Todd was instrumental in igniting numerous companies, ranging from urban clothing to metal buildings.

When asked what he is most looking forward to in this new role, Todd replied “I look forward to leading and mentoring a dominant sales team through a process, expertise, and passion resulting in global dominance in the Cyber Security Industry. I look forward to integrating with a great team at Infogressive through transparency, collaboration and shared values.”

Todd’s arrival coincides with the addition of Amy Luby as Vice President of Channel Sales and Heather Lantz’s promotion to Chief Operating Officer. Justin Kallhoff, Infogressive founder and CEO had this to say “We’re lucky to have two seasoned, successful leaders like Todd and Amy join our team at a perfect time. Infogressive continues to experience explosive growth and these two will only accelerate our success. Our entire team is thrilled to have these two difference makers begin their Infogressive careers and join our mission to protect our customers and partners from hackers.”
