

Catholic Central Activity Guide

Episode 28: Revelation

Diving Deeper

- ▶ How do you feel the media's images of "the end of the world" are similar to or different from the images depicted in the Book of Revelation?
- ▶ What is an example of a time where you saw God "win" in your life? Does remembering that time give you hope and courage for present trials, or for upcoming challenges you might anticipate?
- ▶ Does the idea of the "end of the world" or the "last and final judgment" scare you or fill you with hope? Why? What would it mean for your life if today was the last day? How might it change the way you live today?

Go Forth

- ▶ Pick a passage in the Book of Revelation. Which images and symbols stand out to you? What might they mean? Keeping in mind the context of John's purpose for writing Revelation, how might those images and symbolic language have been helpful to early Christians? What interpretation might be meaningful for you today?
- ▶ In what ways can you be like St. John as far as being a voice of hope to those around you in the midst of chaos, fear, and confusion in today's world?

Resources

- ▶ Revelation commentary line-by-line
- ▶ Scott Hahn on what John really saw
- ▶ The links between Revelation and the Easter story

