

Catholic Central wins Gabriel Award

Internet video series produced by Family Theater Productions receives first-place award for Best Video at the Gabriel Awards

Catholic Central came home a winner at the 2018 Gabriel Awards. The internet-based video series received a first-place award for Media, Internet Video, 10 Minutes or Less from the Catholic Press Association (CPA), sponsor of this prestigious recognition program.

The judges said, “It combines both pop culture references and useful apologetics. A good answer to the question of how can we reach young people today... Cute, creative, funny and informative.”

A project of Family Theater Productions, Catholic Central offers entertaining and authoritative answers to questions about Catholic thought, spirituality and practice. A team of witty writers, appealing hosts and learned theologians help produce this collection of videos that entertain, enlighten and inspire. The series can be viewed at CatholicCentral.com.

“We are very pleased with this honor,” said Father David Guffey, C.S.C., National Director of Family Theater Productions and Executive Producer of Catholic Central. “We strive to be relevant and provide media that is impactful. Our team of writers, along with Kai and Libby, our show hosts, work diligently on every episode.”

Presented by the Catholic Press Association, the Gabriel Awards honor works of excellence in film, network, cable television, radio and social media. It continues to recognize outstanding artistic achievement in media that entertains and enriches with a true vision of humanity and life.

Family Theater Productions has been creating family, faith-based media since 1947 from its production facilities on Sunset Boulevard in Hollywood, Calif. For more information, go to www.CatholicCentral.com.
