Religious Education Lesson Plan Helpers by Laura Grace

Eighth Commandment: You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Please note: Some of our lesson plans contain links to Christian, non-Catholic resources. When preparing your lessons, we urge you to inform yourself on the teachings of the Catholic Church with respect to the Sunday gospel and readings. If you find links in any of the lesson plans which may be counter to the teachings of the Church, please notify lisa@catholicmom.com. These lesson plan helpers are designed to assist you in pulling together creative ideas and activities to supplement your lesson plan, but are not designed to be catechetical in nature. Thank you for your continued prayerful support.*

Do you guard what you say?

Do you lie?

Do you gossip? (Talk about others when they are not around?)

Do you boast and make yourself look better than you are?

Do you try to get others in trouble?

Do you point out other people's faults unnecessarily?

Do you not tell the whole truth?

Do you say things about people that you wouldn't want them to know about?

Who is Without Sin? After taking balled-up pieces of paper and pretending to stone a sinner, the children will compare judging others to having sin in their own lives. (Note: You can change this activity to having the student throw the balled up pieces of paper toward a person that is drawn on the chalkboard).
