

Father Peyton's Cause

Sainthood Process - The Stages of Canonization

Servant of God: Promoter group (diocese, parish, religious congregation, etc.) requests an investigation by the Holy See; if granted, the candidate receives the title: Servant of God.

Venerable: The declaration of a person's heroic virtues and sanctity of life.

Blessed: Once a miracle is attributed to the intercession of the candidate.

Saint: After a second miracle is attributed to the candidate's intercession, the Holy Father declares the candidate to be a Saint.
