Tip

“To make sure your art works together, choose pieces that have a common thread, a certain colour or frame, which usually results in a very clean and classic look.”

How many times you have looked at a wall and thought “a gallery wall will fit here perfectly but how I should start”?

It's quite easy! Whether it's big, small or somewhere in between, creating a gallery with your favorite prints and art pieces can instantly elevate the style of any space.

So, start to get a framing layout online, pick your favorite frames and prints or quotes and make a check list of what you need (as hammer, nails, level, tape measure, pencil...). I advice you to measure the amount of wall space you want to fill and then tape off that section on a clean floor. Try different arrangements before you hang the boards on the wall. Now it's time hanging on the wall! The key is making sure you start with a couple of larger pieces to anchor the wall.

I recommend limiting the height of your gallery wall to two works, top to bottom, keeping your gallery at eye-level, for you and your customers enjoy. And there you have it! A elegant and useful gallery wall, filled with quotes, messages and style according to your space.
