ESP Early Adopter Results

Payback - Email Sales Pro

Don't miss this easy
revenue opportunity!

- ✓ In just the first three months, early adopters averaged $26,873 to $31,678 per month in revenue
- ✓ $309,507 in total revenue attribution since launch, with monthly revenue ranging from $1,585 to $83,202
- ✓ Conversion of 267 dormant accounts, purchasing as much as $15,525
- ✓ As high as 74.2% Email Open Rates
- ✓ Up to 25% Email Click-Thru Rates

*Sales revenue attributed from Email Sales Pro match-back tracking November 2018 – July 2019

*Revenue attribution was calculated using match-back analysis: Tracking end customers who received an Email Sales Pro campaign email, responded to that email, and purchased products promoted in that email during the same month the email was received.

Positive Feedback from Resellers

From the beginning, I had high expectations of what Email Sales Pro could do for our company. To automatically have my past and current customers receive incentives to purchase on a monthly basis, without my interaction, was a goal of mine; Email Sales Pro made it a reality.

- V.P. Sales & Marketing, Pilot Reseller

Email Sales Pro is an exciting program that takes an innovative approach to using our own sales data to target our customers and uncover growth opportunities in categories they aren't currently buying from. It also does it at a scale that would be hard to match manually.

- V.P. of Sales & Marketing, Early Adopter Reseller

$131,675

in sales revenue has been attributed from Email Sales Pro for this reseller.*

$83,202

in sales revenue has been attributed from Email Sales Pro in the first month for this reseller.

INCREASED REVENUES

EMAIL SALES PRO

The results? Increased sales and loyalty from personalized and ongoing customer engagement!

Advanced Targeting for 1:1 Communications

Different actions trigger different emails giving a relevant and unique sequence of emails

How Email Sales Pro Works

Driven by point-of-sale data for a more personalized experience

- Analyzes/uses end-consumer purchasing data
- Selects campaigns based on business rules that target specific users who match buying behavior patterns.
- Sends emails with a specific message and merchandising strategy that relates to products the end-user did or did not buy
- Provides monthly sales and email reporting for campaigns sent

Essendant and sales-i take care of the heavy lifting:

- Data analysis
- Campaign and creative development
- Email sends

Key Benefits of Email Sales Pro

Ability to automatically deliver highly-targeted emails that:

- ✓ Build & Reward Customer Loyalty
- ✓ Increase Sales
- ✓ Retain Business
- ✓ Win Back Lost Sales

Reseller Considerations: Email Sales Pro

Opportunity to take Email Marketing program to the next level:

- Relevance: Shift to more targeted 1:1 email communications
- Better results: Drive higher sales conversions (and email response)
- Effectiveness: Add major new functionality with no impact on staff (turnkey solution delivers data intelligence, campaign creation, hands-off execution and reporting)
- Efficiency: Automated programs running in the background, no attention needed
- Control: Ability to control quantity (and quality) of emails sent to contacts
- Flexibility: Can participate in any or all campaigns – due to targeted nature
- Intelligence: Monthly sales reporting

Email Sales Pro: Ease of Adoption

Essendant Email and sales-i power this “hands-off” solution

- No other systems or program requirements beyond sales-i
 - Works with most 3PVs
- No actions needed once campaigns are set up
 - Campaigns are always running and analyzing customer data
- No Marketing, IT, Analytics or Creative resources required
 - No contact list or email service maintenance
 - No analytics or business intelligence programs to run
 - No content to design

Only reseller involvement is during set up

1. Select campaigns
2. Load offers in eCommerce system

sales-i Collaboration

The Key to Email Sales Pro Success!

Who is sales-i?

sales-i is sales performance software created to make selling less stressful & more profitable for any product-based salesperson

Sales intelligence tool

- Analyzes a company's customers' buying behaviors
- Aids in better customer understanding
 - What customers are buying
 - What they are not buying
 - What they should be buying
- Gains a complete picture of customers
 - Including insights into changes in customer spend

sales-i Protects Reseller Data

Essendant only receives data related to executing campaigns

- End-user email address
- Campaign type that end-user qualifies for
- Sales data at the campaign level
 - For Essendant to understand how well campaigns are performing and to identify opportunities for improvement or changes needed

Campaign Development

Working to bring the best selection of campaigns!

- Additional campaigns are in development
- Working with pilot and early adopter resellers to develop even more
- All campaigns go through testing to make sure they provide a measurable impact to resellers

Will End-Users Get Blasted with Emails?

NO!

- Highly targeted = Not all customers qualify for every Email Sales Pro campaign
- Logic is built into the system to prioritize the campaign types for limiting the number of emails that an end-user can receive
 - As the most sophisticated of the Essendant email campaigns types, Email Sales Pro is prioritized
