

STEAM Scavenger Hunt

Science, technology, engineering, art, and math are all around us! See what you can find.

Find two polygons	Find something magnetic	Find something opaque	Find something that changes color	Find three items that use coding in everyday life
Find one food grown on a bush and one food grown on a tree	Find two items that use electricity	Find something that can be recycled	Find examples of each state of matter (solid, gas, liquid)	Find an example of a repeating pattern
Find something that will float	Find an example of an arch	Find two examples of simple machines (lever, pulley, wedge, screw, wheel & axle, inclined plane)	Find something that has number with a decimal	Find an item that can be used to communicate a message
Find an example of robotics in everyday life	Find something that tells direction	Find three items that can make sound	Find something pliable	Find three examples of fractions
Find something transparent	Find something that uses gears	Find something that is symmetrical	Find two examples of how technology makes a daily task better or easier	Find an item that is used when building a structure