Brad is a Principal in the Matthews office of LBA Haynes Strand, where he leads our Dental niche. Brad works extensively with dental professionals and practices as a strategic business advisor.

Having worked with hundreds of dental clients over the past several years, Brad understands the needs, demands, and complexities that his dental clients face. It is his goal to take the tax and accounting needs off their hands, so they can get back to focusing on their patients and their practice.

Services Offered:

- Tax Strategies & Preparation
- Profit Consulting
- Accounting Solutions
- Risk Assessment & Protection
- Forensic Accounting
- Start-Up Services
- M&A Advisory

“I enjoy working with my dental clients because in the current economy, dentists and dental practice owners have the same opportunity to prosper that has always been available. However, it requires diligence, teamwork, and a focus on not only working for your practice but on your practice. I believe working side by side with a professional you can trust is a cornerstone of that process.”
