Silverbug's Consultancy Services

Audits

Silverbug consultants can examine and evaluate your organisations information technology infrastructure, policies and operations. Audits determine whether IT controls protect your organisations assets, ensure data integrity and are aligned with your overall goal.

Project Management

Silverbug's effective Project Managers are all accredited with Prince2 certification and have a vast experience of managing both IT and non-IT projects across a full range of organisation sizes, whilst maintaining budget and staying ahead of schedule.

Transition

Silverbug will act as your 3rd party provider, providing both buyer and seller with the assurance that the IT part of the process can be managed objectively, and in the best interest of all parties.

Technical Design Authority

Our specialist consultants are used to dealing with 'alien' systems; we assess the functional needs and its use, before applying our experience and knowledge to helping your organisation move forwards.

Solutions Architect

Silverbug consultants can work in conjunction with your team assisting or owning the design of your infrastructure. Drawing on their own specialist experience and expertise can save your organisation time and money in ensuring that industry best practices are applied to any design required.
