CHALLENGE

Alexis Nakota Sioux Nation lacked the tools to effectively process financial transactions and create reports with budgets that were required by the Chief and Council. They needed a system to handle they many programs and to effectively process non profit payroll.

With the changing requirements of the Alexis Nakota Sioux Nation the current financial solutions could not accommodate any more change. The mission of developing and implementing sound business practices required more robust financial reporting and budgeting.

The organization began the search for a better solution. Asyma Solutions presented a system that would fully integrate their current reporting requirements with a Sage 300 system. The system would be able to handle the requirements for divisions and budgeting reporting with the ability to handle future requirements for functionality such as enhanced cash management as required by the Band.

As stated by Valarie Alexis "Asyma Solutions is extremely helpful and insures we receive the most suitable services to meet our needs!"

SOLUTION

Sage 300 accounting and payroll software was the solution combined with the special processes and procedures developments by Alexis and Asyma to meet their requirements.

Asyma Solutions together with the Alexis Nakota Sioux Nation designed special reporting for Chief and Council to allow for better control of the bands divisional budgets and finances. According to Valarie Alexis "We continue to make improvements to our processes. We are able to access unlimited support for a set monthly fee without the worry of additional charges". Software is 50% of the solution. Designing, implementing and training in the use of effective processes and procedures is the other 50% to make a solution work.
