INFORMATION SERVICES

VetToCEO is a non-profit organization which provides free entrepreneurship training to all veterans. We are a band of veterans who share a passion for entrepreneurship as a viable career choice after our time in the military.

We have developed an entrepreneurship training program with 7 core modules which takes veterans through a rigorous process of business planning. Upon completion participants have fully developed business plans with financial models, investor presentations & funding models.

We have delivered this program online more than 20 times over the past 3 years and our participants have developed successful plans.
