MASTERED

“Mastered has really taken me out of the trenches and given me time to think about me. These little bits of self realization have been worth the effort.”

Make 2019 count

Over the last four years we've collaborated with some of the most respected brands and experts in the fashion industry to accelerate the careers of more than 4,000 emerging creatives and brands from over 95 countries around the globe.

Over that time, the Mastered experience has evolved to become a much more personal one. One where every professional receives expert guidance in three ways - through mentoring, performance coaching, and from our own in-house support team.

Our alumni are people who knew they were meant to succeed, and felt driven to prove it. They know the many hard miles spent getting there, the punishing schedules, the knowledge only gained through experience, and the relationships you must build along the way. In the end, we do it because we love it.

You chose a challenging path, don't make it one you're walking alone. To help you get there, get actionable advice, a global network of potential collaborators, and industry opportunities that are exclusive to this community.

Take this chance to put all your hard work into practice. To make your potential count.

We've developed this 10-month accelerator to help emerging talent who are ready to commit to claiming their place in the industry of the future.

Take a look at what this year could hold for you.

A completely new model for talent development

We designed this groundbreaking accelerator around four elements that will be the key to your transformation. Practical skills learning. One-to-one feedback. Network. Exposure.

Learn-by-doing

Unlike typical online courses, a Mastered accelerator goes far beyond watching videos of experts. We believe you learn-by-doing, which is why the accelerator is built around doing relevant exercises that forward your career.

Feedback and coaching

Your 10-month experience includes:

- five mentoring calls from industry experts to give you feedback and actionable advice for how to get to the next stage of your career
- five personal development calls to ensure you stay on track and reach your goals
- unlimited access to the Mastered support team who are on-hand to help make the most of your time with us

Collaborate

No one in this industry succeeds alone. You need a team around you, and joining Mastered means joining a network of over 4,000 handpicked creatives and designers with whom you can collaborate. Together you will rise.

Be seen

Armed with the right skills, mindset and network, the accelerator provides numerous opportunities for you to build your profile. Your work will be showcased and spotted by the people that matter to your career.

Securing your place

Complete practical, relevant projects

Your accelerator is released in five modules over 10 months. Within each module, there'll be a selection of exercises which will support your real-world work and career, as well as preparing you for mentoring calls, which happen once a module.

- Each module covers a specific theme and consists of a mentoring call, a coaching call, and expert insight delivered via video and text lessons
- Within each module there are multiple exercises designed to fit around your existing commitments that relate to the theme of the module
- You upload personal work in the form of text, imagery and videos into your projects on the platform
- The work you choose to upload will be what you want to cover ahead of your mentoring call
- All the exercises are developed to help you be more prolific, learn-by-doing and support your career inside and outside the classroom.

“The best thing is the confidence it has given me.

In the very first module, for the first time in my life,

I was given the skills and expert advice to take a look at my goals and values and discover what I really want and what is important to me. I can’t thank you enough for this.”

Three types of personal guidance.

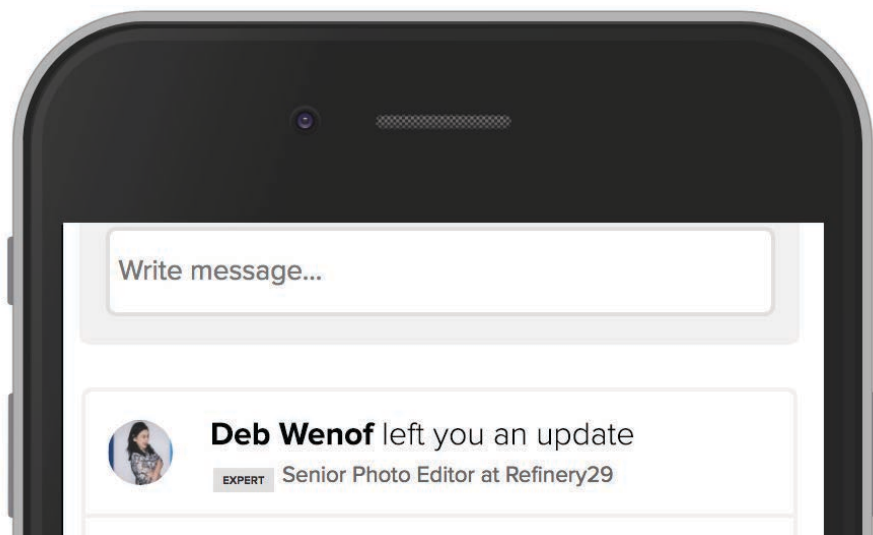

Three layers of expertise.

| | Mentoring | Coaching | Support |
|---------------------------------------|--|--|---|
| Who delivers it to you | Independent industry experts | Performance coaches | Mastered's in-house support team |
| Number of sessions in the accelerator | 5 One per module for 5 modules | 5 One per module for 5 modules | Unlimited We'll check-in every module, but you can book a call anytime |
| What's covered | Feedback on your work and career and actionable advice on how to improve | Improving performance, reaching your goals faster and overcoming obstacles | General enquiries, program guidance, unblocking issues and insight |
| How it works | You book in a video call with a mentor | You book in a video call with a coach | Whatever works for you: email, text, or book a phone or video call |
| What you should prepare | Prior to the call you upload recent work you want the mentor to view | Submit the questions and themes you want to cover ahead of the call | If there's something specific you want to cover, then send it over ahead of your call |

Get feedback and advice from industry mentors

During every module, you can speak to an industry expert and get honest feedback and actionable advice on your work and career.

- Industry mentors for previous Mastered accelerators have included magazine editors, agents, brand consultants and artists working in fashion right now
- These insiders look at your goals, projects, work and self-reflections to give you feedback on where you're at and what steps to take to reach your goals
- Your feedback expert will write up notes and actions from your call and put them into your private Journal so that you can revisit them at any time

Achieve your career goals with a performance coach

Successful CEOs and athletes have performance coaches to help them achieve their goals and overcome blockers. On this accelerator, you get one too.

- Set personal and career goals that motivate and inspire you
- Your coach will look at the advice given by your feedback expert. They'll hold you accountable if you don't take action, and help you get unstuck if you're not progressing as fast as you want
- Your coach will write up notes and actions from your call and put them into your private journal, so you can revisit them at any time

Join a network of opportunity

No one succeeds alone. Which is why you will join a global network of 4,000 professionals to network and collaborate with. Creative briefs set by industry legends will give you the stimulus to discover and work with peers.

- Profiles of the entire network live on the Directory. You can search by discipline, by location, or by name
- Find collaborators by looking at their work, their client list, their biography, their social profiles and their contact details
- You'll be set three collaborative briefs over the course of the year. In 2017 these briefs were set by the creative director Fabien Baron, the photography duo Inez and Vinoodh, stylist Patti Wilson and The Impression founder and editor-in-chief Kenneth Richard
- Local meetups take place all over the world, organised by your peers, to help you meet each other in person and build your relationships

Vogue Italia's senior photo editor, Alessia Glaviano, published the work of six Mastered teams on PhotoVogue – Vogue Italia's digital platform. This highlighted stories from a Mastered collaboration brief entitled "Say Something" set by stylist, and Vogue Italia's fashion editor-at-large, Patti Wilson. In her Mastered brief she challenged professionals to create a story that made a statement about the world around them

i-D, the iconic British youth magazine beloved by industry insiders and consumers alike, has provided an impressive platform for Mastered’s professionals. More than 120 of our creatives have been featured in articles that range from highlighting what inspires our makeup artists to spotlighting follow-worthy Instagram accounts, as well as showcasing dozens of incredible images produced in response to Mastered’s collaboration briefs.

International, independent fashion magazine, HUNGER (owned by legendary photographer Rankin), published images by six Mastered teams on their digital platform. These shots were captured during Mastered Live, a two-day event where creatives across Mastered accelerators come together at a global location to take part in life-changing workshops, portfolio reviews and fashion shoots.

The UK's leading nail magazine

As a dedicated advocate of new talent, Alex Box recruited her entire core team for the prestigious RCA (Royal College of Art, London) 2017 fashion show, which was covered by Vogue, Dezeen, BoF and WGSN. 15 artists were given the responsibility of helping create her fantastical and complex looks, which have become her signature for catwalk shows for designers such as Westwood, McQueen and Chanel.

Mastered makes being able to assist at a major catwalk show a reality. Seventeen hair stylists were selected to join Guido's core team backstage during SS18 in Milan, New York and Paris, at shows for Ralph Lauren, McQueen, Dior, Mui Mui, Coach, Versace, Dolce & Gabbana, Alexander Wang, Kanye West, Calvin Klein, Jil Sander and Marc Jacobs. The stylists' skills were tested to their limits but they returned with invaluable insight, new skills and network contacts.

Two of the fashion calendar's most ground-breaking shows - VFILES (NYC) and London Queer Fashion show, built entire teams from Mastered's network. With a makeup lead and eight further MUA's at VFiles, and 10 hair stylists and 18 MUA's (including team leads) at LQFS, this was an opportunity for the professionals to deliver full concepts at shows. Subsequent press included Vogue, PAPER, Billboard, and NOWFASHION, amongst others.

Throughout the accelerator, Mastered has enabled its professionals, including photographers, art directors and stylists, the opportunity to be featured on Lucy's digital version, where they have dedicated an entire page to Mastered's bright talents.

“Highlights have been personally being challenged to be more specific. Really being pushed to dig past the surface to get to the roots of who I am as an artist. For me being inspired in new ways has been incredible.”

Accelerator overview

Securing your place

Everything you love about Mastered. In two unforgettable days.

We love digital learning. We love in-person workshops too. The accelerator is designed to give you the best of both worlds, in a life-changing experience.

- Included in your accelerator experience is an invite to one of two Mastered Live events happening around the world.
Last year's events took place in London, Athens, and New York. The locations for 2019 are currently TBC.
- Attendance to Mastered: Live is included in the fees. You just need to pay for your travel and accommodation and we'll take care of everything else
- It's a chance to come together with the Mastered community and take part in inspiring workshops, get portfolio reviews, and be mentored through a photoshoot with industry professionals
- The event attracts global press coverage including features of artist work created at the event in Nylon, Into The Gloss, Lula magazine, Vulkan, and the Vogue Italia website

The very first Mastered: Live took place on the Reykjanes peninsula in Iceland. Mastered experts, including Vogue Italia's senior photo editor Alessia Glaviano, WAH Nails founder Sharmadean Reid, nail artist Marian Newman and creative consultant Mimma Viglezio took part in this two-day event of hands-on workshops, photoshoots, panel debates and networking.

MASTERED
Live: Iceland

At a fortress in Dubrovnik, Mastered Live ran talks and workshops with a variety of experts, including agents, magazine editors and producers. Workshops included storytelling, moodboarding, and being reactive on shoots, before professionals headed for Croatia's stunning landscapes for a collaborative photoshoot – styled with our brand designers products.

MASTERED
Live: Croatia

Montreal played host to the third Mastered Live, where professionals experienced empowering and useful workshops by experts such as Krista Prestek and Caryn Franklin which spanned topics like how to create the perfect two-minute pitch, improving your mindset and navigating fast-moving trends. Included in the two-day event were in-depth portfolio reviews by the likes of Brianne Almeida (La La Land Artists), Arden Fanning (Contributing editor, Vogue), Mary Fletcher (Refinery 29), and Miquel Polidano (Baron & Baron).

MASTERED

Securing your place

Accelerator overview

Your Mastered learning journey has been designed by our in-house producers, in collaboration with the some of the world's top fashion names. You will be immersed in each subject at an achievable pace that works around your existing commitments. We guide you through compelling video and written guides while you are mentored by the industry's most successful experts, as well as Mastered's coaches and a support crew dedicated to you.

Goals and your aesthetic

To succeed as a session stylist, you need a defined aesthetic. The fashion industry needs to notice you and understand what kind of artist you are - and then book you. You need to know where - and what - you want your work to be so that you can take the right steps to get there.

The starting modules of the accelerator are all about goals and your aesthetic. You'll be working out who you are as a creative and defining the fashion magazines and brand clients who are right for you and what you want to achieve – both on the accelerator, and in your career.

In this module, you will:

- Explore what makes you unique and start to define what makes you stand out to others
- Gain a deeper understanding of what success looks like for you personally as you find your place as a creative in the fashion industry
- Begin the process of identifying the fashion clients who are right for your style
- Set goals that will help you achieve what you want from your career, while remaining true to your own personal brand, values and ideas of success

Creative process and trends

Once you've defined your voice and unique signature as a session stylist, it's time to refine your creative process. Mastered will help you to deliver this consistently, whilst putting your own stamp on any project.

This module is all about applying your creative voice to projects, whilst delivering your ideas in relevant and innovative ways.

In this module, you will:

- Take a deep dive into your creative process, understanding how to get inspired and to research – then how to use that research to enhance your own aesthetic and create work with depth
- Master the art of fashion storytelling and character creation, so your work is real, relevant and relatable
- Learn how to identify and use trends, as well as how to launch your own. You'll also discover how brands use trends to influence, innovate and sell
- Understand how to turn concepts and ideas into a finished product that fits the needs of the fashion industry, creating a demand for your work

Fashion fundamentals

Today there are more magazines, brands, designers and celebrities than ever, all keen to work with talented creatives. Each client will have their own type of brief and require a different approach from you every time.

In the previous module, you established your aesthetic; here, you'll learn the fundamental skills needed to adapt as a session stylist. You'll discover how to work with fashion titles, individuals and brands that align with your aesthetic and goals.

In this module, you will:

- Learn how each fashion job works and how to get editorial, commercial clients and shows, plus explore additional places to get lucrative work.
- How to translate briefs to decipher what a client wants and needs, as well as how to balance your own aesthetic with their demands.
- Gain an insight into the key players in each area and how to get on their radar as an emerging creative.
- Understand the roles of part time and full time assisting in the fashion industry, and whether it could work for you.

Future fashion

There are more opportunities than ever to showcase your skills and pitch yourself as an original, adaptable creative. Make the most of a rapidly changing fashion industry, and create ideas that match the demands of magazines and clients who want to stand out from the crowd.

Now you've learnt the fundamentals of fashion work and how to get it, here you'll learn the next steps of bringing your craft to new, diverse audiences and building a reputation as a desirable, forward-thinking creative.

In this module, you will:

- Discover the new, lucrative job opportunities and clients available to you in the fashion industry and how to adapt your fundamental skills to pitch and get work with them
- Learn how the fashion industry is changing, what to expect in the future and how you can take advantage of this to solve problems for magazines and brands who want to develop in the digital world
- Understand more about the 'next steps' roles available to you as a beauty artist - from being a brand ambassador or a magazine's go-to artist, to lucrative consultancy work

Your brand and career ahead

To succeed in the fashion industry, you need more than just creative skills; after all, you're not just an artist, you're a business.

In this important final module, you'll learn how to promote yourself, how to present your work and how to thrive in the industry and achieve your goals. You'll understand how to plan your career, so you can continue to create and achieve your goals while remaining motivated, inspired and excited about your future.

In this module, you will:

- Understand how develop a strong and recognisable personal brand that runs through everything you do and builds your profile within the industry
- Discover how to best present yourself on social media to grow an audience of relevant and engaged followers that will enhance your career
- Learn more about the role of the agent and their potential role within your career, as well as how make a great impression when you're pitching for one
- Create a career plan to help you avoid burning out and gain the right balance of commercial and editorial work for a long and profitable career
