Bright Horizons.

"With Teams, the tool itself is intuitive, but the change management is a challenge. What attracted us to Enabling was that certified change management specialists would guide us through the process. Now, our team says 'Oh yeah, I can do this!'"

Strategy & Planning

Planning
Enabling will host a planning session with the team to provide recommendations for target audiences and key stakeholders, while capturing additional information around barriers to adoption and potential risk.

Stakeholder Invitation Communication & Survey
Enabling will provide a stakeholder-facing communication, in an editable format, that can be leveraged to invite key stakeholders to participate in an onsite workshop. Invitations will be sent by the client to key stakeholders.

Excitement Day Preparation
Enabling will host a planning session to coordinate the delivery of an Excitement Day as part of this engagement. The Excitement Day experience will be present as part of each workshop.

Custom Workshops

The Rule of 4's
Enabling will host (4) custom workshops to target (4) different audiences within your organization. Each interactive workshop will last approximately (4) hours and provide the following experience:

An Immersion Experience
'A Day in the Life': Hands-on exploration of Microsoft Teams in your environment. We design this session to drive lively conversation and generate excitement around Microsoft Teams and other Microsoft 365 tools.

Practical Application to Drive Adoption
- Discovery of collaboration and business needs
- Mapping business needs to the Microsoft
- Teams features and capabilities
- Introduction to resources to scale and drive adoption

The Bottom Line
Maximizing your investment in Microsoft Teams won't be a 'PITA' when key stakeholders assume the role of Microsoft Teams Champions and drive adoption among their peers.
