CAPABILITY MATURITY MODEL INTEGRATION (CMMI)

CMMI is an internationally recognized standard of best practices. Its purpose is to help organizations make measured improvements in their project management capabilities. AEM has firsthand experience in benefitting from our own process improvement initiatives. Several of our programs have implemented CMMI-based processes and have gone through multiple appraisals.

- CMMI for Development - Best practices for improving product development and maintenance processes
- CMMI for Services - Best practices for establishing, managing and delivering services
