

Valens Int. D.o.o

Working with Taxback International has been a seamless operation, their one-stop shop solution has taken away the hassle of data gathering and dealing with the tax office. They do it all, allowing Valens Int. concentrate on our core business while creating an extra revenue stream through their foreign VAT reclaim. Everything Taxback International does happens in the background with no disruption to our work.

Taxback International has proven to be knowledgeable and helpful throughout the initial transition phase and have continued to provide this exceptional customer service for the last 3 years. They have not only maintained the same service levels but also work hard to keep innovating and improving their offerings and have introduced many new technologies which continue to streamline processes for Valens Int. thereby maximising our VAT reclaim.

Ultimately, Taxback International differentiated themselves as market leaders with outstanding processes, competitive pricing and advanced online reporting. Another key component of the Taxback International offering is the professional Key Management provided – over the 3 years of dealing with Taxback International, Valens Int. have dealt with one single point of contact. This consistency has resulted in a strong relationship between our two companies.

Jure Pavlic, Valens Int.

valens

Science-backed nutrition
for healthy living.