In a world of high speed broadband and digital connectivity Flame Tree's super-deluxe new anthology Chilling Ghost Short Stories looks and feels fabulous. It combines bold new voices and classic gothic writers in a publication of rare beauty. With over thirty stories packed between stunning hardback covers (printed on silver, embossed, matt laminated, and foiled twice), this is the perfect gift for anyone interested in imaginative storytelling.

After a major social media campaign for the new Gothic and Fantasy series (SF, Horror and Ghosts) Flame Tree's successful call for submissions brought over 700 talented new writers around the world, causing a severe selection headache for our editorial board.

After carefully matching these fantastic new stories with the writing of E.F. Benson, Henry James, Wilkie Collins, Washington Irving, Edith Wharton, Oscar Wilde and more, the result is a vivid journey into multiple visions of the future, with stories of headless horsemen, resurrected lovers and cursed relics.

Chilling Ghost Short Stories: a stunning, collectable anthology of Gothic Fantasy from Flame Tree Publishing.
