PORTS OF CALL

Cruising the Inside Passage

Cruise the Inside Passage along Canada's scenic west coast into Alaska's more sheltered Inside Passage, an island-dotted waterway edged by verdant forests, mountains, and glaciers.

Ketchikan, Alaska

Built around salmon canneries and sawmills, Ketchikan was once proclaimed the Salmon Capital of the World. Its unique culture is celebrated through its renowned collection of totem poles, an accolade to Native art. Not far in the distance is the Tongass National Forest—the nation's largest—abundant with wildlife and the peaceful aura of the North Country.

Cruising Tracy Arm

Veering through the scenic Tongass National Forest, Tracy Arm is a stunning fjord of unparalleled beauty featuring 2,000-foot granite walls rising straight out of the water, snow-capped mountaintops, massive tidewater glaciers and towering waterfalls permeating the shoreline. This magnificent waterway is highlighted by the twin Sawyer Glaciers, a pair of translucent, sapphire glaciers and a gallery of icebergs that float down this narrow slice of calm water, where seals and whales are often spotted.

Sitka, Alaska

Historically significant and vibrantly multicultural, Sitka is the storyteller of some of the state's most compelling history. The city's fascinating museums house some of Alaska's oldest native culture collections, and the Sitka National Historical Park boasts totem-lined forest trails and authentic artisan exhibits.

Prince Rupert, B.C., Canada

History, nature and local personality are larger than life in this port city that sits on the frontier of Canada's wilderness. Wonderful attractions bring its ancient native culture and pioneer heritage to life, while its legendary sport fishing and wildlife viewing—from whales to wild bears to soaring eagles—lend a perfect touch of wilderness and a greater appreciation for the interaction between human civilization and the natural world.
