PORTS OF CALL

Paris (Le Havre), France

Heavily bombed during World War II, Le Havre's city center was later rebuilt by Belgian architect Auguste Perret. His unique vision for the city, which now bears UNESCO World Heritage status, is reflected in notable sights like the rocket-shaped Saint-Joseph Church.

Bruges (Zeebrugge), Belgium

The 14th century seems to have come to a standstill in this timeless Flemish city. Perfectly preserved buildings and storybook houses make Bruges one of Europe's most picturesque medieval cities.

Antwerp, Belgium

Baroque artist Pieter Paul Rubens left his mark on Antwerp, Belgium's second-largest city and biggest port. Antwerp's imposing riverside fortress and masterpiece Cathedral of Our Lady are well worth a visit, as is its beautiful medieval core, where flower markets and cafes spill out onto cobbled lanes.

Amsterdam, Netherlands

Amsterdam's history is honored in the powerfully moving Anne Frank House and the countless museums dedicated to the Golden Age of art, while traditional windmills can be found in the surrounding verdant countryside.

Hamburg (Bremerhaven), Germany

Although celebrated for the National German Maritime Museum, Bremerhaven is best known as a gateway to Germany's second-largest city, Hamburg, laced with more than 2,100 bridges.

Kristiansand, Norway

With its vibrant shopping scene, lovely beach, and charming old quarter lined with wooden houses, Kristiansand truly comes alive in the summertime. Norway's fifth-largest city offers no shortage of family-friendly attractions, from the renowned Kristiansand Zoo to the Agder Natural History Museum and Botanical Garden.

Oslo, Norway

At the head of a 60-mile-long fjord and framed by forests, lakes, and moors, the sophisticated capital of Norway is a remarkable blend of stunning natural beauty and a thriving urban atmosphere.

Gothenburg, Sweden

Gothenburg, with its plentiful green spaces, graceful mix of old and new architecture, and colorful festivals, is set to become Sweden's thriving cultural heart. This former ship-building town buzzes with life, from its cozy cafes and bistros to its excellent seafood restaurants and lavish boutiques.
