

GATWICK

The Beehive, a unique base for business.

Built in 1936, the original terminal building at Gatwick Airport is an Orega flagship business centre with striking Art Deco exterior and interior features. Benefitting from plenty of natural light, the centre has been transformed into a productive and enjoyable working environment in what is most definitely a unique and memorable base for your business.

WELCOME TO THE BEEHIVE

The Beautiful Art Deco exterior of The Beehive is perfectly complemented with the modern, stylish furnishings and high quality IT and telecoms infrastructure inside.

The Beehive's five meeting rooms are handy to Gatwick airport for when you need to hold a meeting before or after a flight. Our support team will prepare the room to your exact requirements prior to your arrival and will be on hand to assist with administrative tasks and provide refreshments throughout the day.

If you want to grow your business at a fraction of the cost of physical office space, try one of our Virtual Office packages. A MyOrega Virtual Office can give you the flexibility of working remotely while having the benefits of a permanent base close to a major international airport.
