

Intermediate Chinese 6 credits SHGH CHIN 2211

This course is being offered at East China Normal University, CAPA's academic partner in Shanghai. The Chinese academic system differs from the US, particularly with grading. ECNU professors expect students to undertake a good deal of independent study to achieve a high mark in their classes.

ECNU classes fill quickly, so make your selections as soon as possible. Please have an alternative ECNU course in mind in case your first choice is unavailable.

Forms of Assessment:

The assessment forms are listed and weighted below. The content, criteria and specific requirements for each assessment category will be explained in greater detail in class.

Attendance	15%
Class Performance	15%
Dictation/Quiz	10%
Homework	10%
Weekly Test	15%
Mid-term Exam	15%
Final Exam	20%

Attendance: Students are expected to attend all scheduled class sessions on time and be thoroughly prepared for the day's class activities. Those who are absent for more than one-third of the total classes regardless of the reasons will not be allowed to take the final exam, nor to get grades. If can not attend class due to sickness or personal emergency, students are required to ask for permission from the program office and course instructor before class or submit related documents (i.e. note from doctor) after class. Such cases will be considered as excused absence.

- Unexcused absence per course hour (which is 45 minutes and there are 4 course hours each morning) will lead to 1 point deduction from the final grade. Being late for class or leave class early for more than 15 minutes will be considered as unexcused absence.
- Being late for class or leave class early within 15 minutes per course hour will lead to 0.5 points deduction from the final grade.
- Excused absence per course hour will lead to 0.25 points deduction from the final grade.

Class Performance: The grade will be calculated to reflect your participation in class activities, your capacity to introduce ideas and thoughts dealing with the topics. When determining your class participation grade, traditional criteria such as material preparation, and collaborative group work are also evaluated. Additionally, it is important to demonstrate a positive and supportive attitude to the instructor and your classmates, and to give full attention to class activities (i.e., cell-phones off or vibrate, laptop for notes only, etc.).

Dictation/Quiz: There will be daily dictation or quiz in words and/or sentences level including preview and/or review contents. No make up.

Homework: Homework is required to be finished by individual or group work. Students should hand in the homework before the deadlines. No late homework accepted. Bonus will be given for homework correction.

Weekly Test: There are 10 weekly tests in total (see course schedule for more details). It will be in written and oral forms in turn. No make up unless you got permission from program office and/or course instructor beforehand.
