

Allan D. Thompson

Qualifications Summary

Skilled financial professional with a deep understanding of finance operations and auditing in both the public and private sectors. Consensus builder and skilled negotiator with the ability to develop and present complex information and obtain useful feedback to drive business decisions.

Professional History

City of Des Moines	Accounting Manager	2014 – 2014
Washington State Auditor's Office King County, WA	Assistant State Auditor	2009 – 2014
Allan Thompson, CPA	Senior Financial Auditor	2005 – 2009
Washington State Auditor's Office	Principal	2005 – 2009
Carter & Co, CPAs	Assistant Audit Manager	2001 – 2005
Perry, Shelton & Walker	Accountant	1999 – 2000
ISSI Data Products	Accountant	1998 – 1999
Clark & Associates	Chief Financial Officer	1998 – 1998
	Accountant	1994 – 1998

Accomplishments

- Oversaw conversion of accounting systems, including development of operations policies and procedures to ensure timely and accurate system migration. Upon completion, developed and analyzed data to assess program effectiveness and operational efficiency. Assessed the integrity and reliability of data, internal controls, and accounting practices
- Designed and implemented reporting and benchmarking systems. Developed daily operational monitoring. Implemented internal controls and other departmental procedures. Performed complex financial modeling, and negotiated lines of credit. Provided regular reports to executive management team.
- At multiple organizations, responsible for accounting, finance, forecasting, strategic planning, job costing, deal analysis, negotiation, and financing. Trained, supervised, and mentored team members.
- Performed daily cash management, maintained capital asset and depreciation schedules, prepared bank reconciliations and journal entries, and communicated with others to provide reporting on cost, labor, and expenditures.
- While in various roles in the Washington State and King County Auditor's offices, supervised audits of local governmental entities. Designed audit programs to address internal control and state and federal compliance. Coordinated audit schedules and monitored budgets. Prepared official reports for publication and provided regular oral and written reports to clients. Conducted fraud investigations.
- Consulted with business owners, prepared financial statements, and performed financial audits and reviews.

Education / Licenses

- Bachelor of Science in Accounting, Central Washington University