

James H. Wood

Qualifications Summary

Multi discipline executive with 40+ years serving in senior financial positions in public, private, nonprofit and international companies in the manufacturing, resources, distribution, publishing, agriculture, medical transporting, and social services sectors.

Professional History

Tatum	Partner/Consultant	2007 – 2014
Global Ventures	Partner/Consultant	1999 – 2006
Royal Oak Mines	CFO	1994 – 1999
Maclean Hunter Publishing	VP Finance	1992 – 1994
CCL Industries and Subsidiaries	Corporate Treasurer	1981 – 1992
	Divisional VP Finance/Controller
KPMG (Toronto)	Audit Manager	1971 – 1980

Accomplishments

- Active participant in 20+ acquisitions, mergers, and/or divestiture of companies and/or divisions.
- Lead and/or collaborated with CEO on numerous fundraising efforts that included public offering, private placement, bank loans, and equipment leasing in amounts ranging from $50K to $400M.
- Developed one to five year business plans to enable refinancing, restructuring, and growth of various businesses.
- Demonstrated ability to develop strong financial teams. Mentored 5+ future senior level financial executives.
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills which have led to cost savings ranging from a few thousand to millions of dollars in numerous companies.

Education, Board Activity, and Awards

- Chartered Accountant - Ontario Institute of Chartered Accountants
- Bachelor of Commerce – Laurentian University

- Board member – Cocoon House
- Former Board Member – Seattle chapter of Association for Corporate Growth
- Former Board Member – Seattle Children’s Museum

- Named 2013 CFO of the year (nonprofit organization) by Puget Sound Business Journal