

Outlook 2016 Tips & Tricks

Shortcuts and timesavers for your favorite email and calendar app

Applies to Outlook 2016 for Windows

1. Get to your inbox fast

Just started up your computer and want to see your inbox right away? Try this.

1 Press these keys:

2 Type outlook and then press the Enter key.

3 When Outlook starts, press these keys to create a new email message:

4 Add your recipients, a subject line, and then write your message.

2. Stop hunting for attachments

Recently worked on something? Don't search for it — it's likely already on the Attach File menu.

- 1 Save a file in any app.

- 2 Create a new message.

- 3 On the ribbon, click Message.

- 4 Click Attach File.

- 5 Select a recently saved file from the list.

3. Where's the Bcc field?

Sending out an email to a bunch of people? Turn on the Bcc field so they can't see the recipients. Nor can they reply to all of the them. Here's how to bring up the Bcc field.

1 Create a new message.

2 On the ribbon, click Options.

3 Click the Bcc button.

4 The Bcc field shows up.

You're done!

Bcc is sticky! What does that mean? It means that after you show it the first time, it will always show up from that moment on. If you turn it off — that's sticky, too! It will stay off in that case.

4. Get rid of outdated Auto-Complete addresses

Auto-Complete addresses are handy — except when they're not. Here's how to delete them.

Start typing a name, and you'll see the Auto-Complete list.

On the right, click the X to remove the address.

Want to delete all Auto-Complete suggestions? You can. Go To File > Options > Mail. Scroll down to the Send messages section. Then either click the Empty Auto-Complete List button, or uncheck Use Auto-Complete to turn it off.

5. Know when to Delete and when to Archive

The Delete and Archive buttons are next to each other. Here's when to use one versus the other.

How it works

✗ Clicking the Delete button will get rid of the message.

How it works

📁 Clicking the Archive button will keep the message.

Why it's special

☆ It's the good old Delete button! Put plainly, it zaps away your message and eventually it will get deleted for good. (Well, unless you undo or recover it.)

Why it's special

☆ It's a one-click way to keep a message. No need to carefully file it into a folder or subfolder. One click, or tap, files it away for safekeeping.

It moves messages to...

📁 The Deleted Items folder, which you probably empty from time to time. In some cases, your IT department may empty it for you.

It moves messages to...

📁 The Archive folder. This is just another folder to keep messages.

Does it reduce mailbox size?

❓ Using the Delete button will eventually reduce the size of your overall mailbox, that is, if the Deleted Items folder gets emptied.

Does it reduce mailbox size?

❓ No. It keeps things, it doesn't remove them or shrink your mailbox in any way.

6. Lightning-fast shortcuts for search

Need to find someone's message really fast? Try these quick shortcuts.

1 Press these keys:

Ctrl + E

2 Your cursor automatically jumps to the Search box.

7. Set an Automatic Reply for your vacation

Call it what you will: “Vacation reply,” “Out of office” message, or “Automatic reply” — here’s how to set it up so that people know you’re out of the office.

1 Go to Mail.

2 Click File.

3 Click Automatic Replies.

4 Click this option.

5 Type your message, and then click OK.

You're done!

NOTE Not all email accounts allow you to set automatic replies. See <https://aka.ms/alternativeAutoReply> for workarounds if this feature isn't available for you.

8. Turn a message into a meeting

Got an email thread that begs for setting up a meeting? Here's how to make that happen.

- 1 Open a message that needs to be turned into a meeting.

RE: Decision???

To Anne Gaines; Jeffery Groce; Julian Hargrave

I'm trying to think what we should do? Anne, what do you think? Option 2? Jeffery? Thoughts? I'm torn. Julian? Your opinions? I'm thinking there are pros and cons for each...

- 2 Press these keys:

- 3 The message turns into a meeting invitation with attendees. Set your Location, the Start time, and End time. Click Send and your meeting is all set up.

i You haven't sent this meeting invitation yet.

 Send	From	robinpruitt@contoso.com
	To...	Anne Gaines; Jeffery Groce; Julian Hargrave
	Subject	We need to make a decision
	Location	Conference Room 1000
	Start time	Mon 6/13/2016 	12:00 PM ▼
	End time	Mon 6/13/2016 	12:30 PM ▼

9. Jump around Outlook with ease

Sometimes you need to be in your calendar, and then quickly switch back to mail. Here are some shortcut keys that can help you do that.

Ctrl + 1

...takes you to Mail.

Ctrl + 2

...takes you to Calendar.

Ctrl + 3

...takes you to People.

Ctrl + 4

...takes you to Tasks.

10. Add a personal signature to messages

Signatures can be fancy, or very plain. Regardless of your style, here's how to create one:

- 1 Create a new message.

- 2 Click Signature.

- 3 Click Signatures...

- 4 On the right, choose an email account.

- 5 On the left, click New.

- 6 Type a name for the signature.

Work Signature|

- 7 Make the signature.

Robin Pruitt
General Manager
Contoso, Ltd.

- 8 Under New message, select your signature.

11. Change the Outlook colors

When you first install Outlook, it may appear too bright for you. If you want different parts of the Outlook interface to stand out, here's how to pick a different color theme.

1 Click File.

2 Click Options.

3 On the right, look for Office Theme.

Office Theme:

4 Select another theme.

5 Click OK.

You're done!

This works across all of your Office apps. Please note that if you change your Office Theme, it will change all of your Office app colors — from Outlook, to Word, to Excel, and so on.

12. Find your Outlook on the web address

Your company might provide you with Outlook on the web. That's a way to check your work email when you're not at your desk. Here's how to find the web address for it.

1 Click File.

2 Click Info, and if your company has Outlook on the web, it will appear there.
