

Parent's Right-to-Know

Public Law 114-95,
Section 1112(e)(1)(A)(i)-(ii)] and
Section 1112(e)(1)(B)(ii)]

Parents of a student enrolled on a Title 1 campus have the right to know the professional qualification of the classroom teachers who instruct their child. Specifically, parents have the right to request the following information about each of their child's classroom teachers:

- If the teacher has met state certification/qualification criteria for the grade level and subject areas taught;
- If the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which state certification/qualification criteria are waived;
- If the teacher is assigned in the field of discipline of the certification;
- Whether the student is provided services by paraprofessionals, and if so, their qualifications [ESSA 1112(e)(1)(A)(i)-(ii)].

In addition to the above information you will be notified if your student has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who does not meet the applicable state certification requirements at the grade level and subject area in which the teacher has been assigned. [ESSA 1112(e)(1)(B)(ii)]

Title 1 campuses are required to publicize and disseminate the accountability results of the district and campus to parents, teachers, principals, schools, and the community so that the teachers, principals, other staff, and schools can continually refine, in an instructionally useful manner, the program of instruction to help all children served under this part meet the challenging state student academic achievement standards established under section 1116(a)(1)(C). This information is posted annually at <https://www.burkburnettisd.org/bisd-district-reporting>.

Finally, Title 1 campuses shall prepare and disseminate an annual School District and Campus Report Card. This information is located on the Burk Burnett Independent School District web page.
