Ellen Greenberg, M.S.O.D.

Organization Development Consultant,
Executive Coach, Trainer, Facilitator

Ellen Greenberg is the co-owner and Lead Consultant of Intersekt Alliance, (a division of Partnering For Change, LLC), an organization committed to providing tools within and across groups to facilitate solution oriented conversations that expand perspectives and promote partnering. Ms Greenberg is a strategic thinker with experience in generating value through leadership development, executive coaching, diversity and inclusion programming, strategic planning, training, team building, managing change, organizational learning, and building high-performance work systems. She has over 20 years of experience working with nonprofit, for profit and government agencies both in management and consulting capacities. In addition, she is a skilled coach, trainer and facilitator who has designed and delivered seminars, workshops and programs on topics such as cultural competence, consulting skills, strategic planning, team building, effective communication, facilitation skills, coaching for leaders, and change management. She facilitates workshops focusing on an understanding of individual, community, and systemic change through: cultural competence, collaboration and partnerships, and building effective relationships within and across group identities.

Ms Greenberg holds an M.S. in Organization Development from American University/NTL Institute (AU/NTL), and a B.A. in Journalism with a specialization in advertising from Temple University. She holds a Certificate of Leadership for Diversity Training with the National Coalition Building Institute. She is qualified to administer and interpret the Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) and the Fundamentals of Interpersonal Relationships Orientation (FIRO Element B) assessment. She recently completed the Georgetown Leadership Coaching program and is a member of the NTL Institute for Applied Behavioral Science, Organization Development Network, and the AU/NTL Alumni Association.
