

Ontellus Announces New Carrier Deals & New Sales VP

Three Insurers sign with Ontellus™ to receive Records Retrieval Services for their P&C Claims, Two others “Go Live” on My.Ontellus™ Platform

HOUSTON, TX – October 15, 2018. For Immediate Release

Ontellus, an industry-leading, nationwide data retrieval and analytics technology company, announced closing new agreements to provide records retrieval services and analytics tools with three insurance carriers to help support them with their claims and litigation analysis. Additionally, two other insurers went live for the first time on the My.Ontellus portal.

“We are excited to welcome another set of insured and self-insured companies onto the Ontellus platform,” says Darren Klauser, Ontellus CEO. “The My.Ontellus platform is a powerful environment for the exchange and analysis of key claims information, which is proving to be a market differentiator. We are pleased with the feedback on the ease of use and speed to adoption.”

My.Ontellus, a cloud-based platform, leverages unparalleled data security, best-in-class technology and a propriety custodian database, to streamline claims management, improve loss ratios and reduce ALAE.

Also announced, Tim Kennedy joined Ontellus as the Vice President of Sales, leading its national carrier sales organization and reporting directly to the CEO. Tim has more than 20 years in the insurance sector and most recently worked for Accenture and CSC.

“We are excited to have Tim join Ontellus,” adds Klauser. “His experience and deep domain knowledge in working with insurance carriers will be of great value to Ontellus and our clients—both current and future.”
