Scratch Hardness is the measure to determine the relative hardness of glazes. This measure is also known as MOHs and uses a scale from 1 to 10 with 10 having the highest scratch hardness.

LOCATION

Suitable for exterior applications in freezing and non-freezing climates when proper installation methods are followed. Not recommended for residential pool decks.

SHADE VARIATION

High (V3) change in color within each tile and from tile to tile.

Since there is shade variation in all fired ceramic and porcelain products, the tile and trim supplied for your particular installation may not match these samples. Color samples, as shown, may not be an exact product match. Mohawk expressly disclaims any liability resulting from product selections that rely solely upon color samples contained on this card. Final selection should always be made from actual pieces of tile and trim, not from tile and trim samples and/or color photo reproductions.
