

September is National Preparedness Month

Keep Workers Safe from Natural Disasters

OSHA has sent out this reminder informing that September is National Preparedness Month for natural disasters. Please take the time to review the information provided by OSHA for your programs.

Hurricane season peaks in September, and wildfires are still burning throughout the Pacific Northwest and from California to Colorado. OSHA urges employers to be prepared to keep their workers safe during extreme weather events. The agency's Emergency Preparedness and Response webpage provides information on protecting workers before and after hurricanes, wildfires, tornadoes, floods, and other natural disasters strike. Please Ctrl+click on the links provided to obtain the information from OSHA.

<https://www.osha.gov/SLTC/emergencypreparedness/index.html>

SafeALERTSM

ORCIG 2018 SafeAlert Series

This material is intended to be a broad overview of the subject matter and is provided for informational purposes only. Old Republic Contractors Insurance Group, Inc. does not endorse or recommend any products or services nor does it make any representation or warranty regarding the accuracy or completeness of the information. Old Republic Contractors Insurance Group, Inc. shall have no liability or responsibility to any person or entity with respect to any loss, action or inaction alleged to be caused directly or indirectly as a result of the information contained herein.

