

TORNADOES

Tornado Season Is Upon Us

Each location (main office, yard, job sites, traveling in a vehicle) where employees are located should have a plan for what to do in case of a tornado. Identifying shelter locations is key.

Several organizations have made developing tornado preparedness plans easier. Take a look at the following sites to see how the information available can be incorporated into your orientation, refresher, toolbox, and job-specific training. Waiting until you see a tornado is too late.

Information on tornado safety and program development are available at:
