

Are You Tired of Access Codes, Video Requests, Coupon Codes, and Expiration Dates? So Are We!

Safety Source Video-On-Demand Training Library

Safety Source Incorporated, based in Southern California, has been producing quality training programs for more than 20 years. BITCO Construction Group (BCG) has arranged with Safety Source to offer a vast library of safety training videos to meet the training needs of almost any industry or job description.

As a valued client, you now have FREE UNLIMITED ACCESS to over 400 titles for all industries, in both English and Spanish, from our BCG Safety Source Video-On-Demand Training Library. These safety training videos have been used by thousands of companies to train millions of workers worldwide.

Video-On-Demand Benefits

- Free Unlimited Access
- 400+ Titles
- English and Spanish Options
- Downloadable Quizzes

Safety Source videos comply with the latest regulations and are presented in a way that is both effective and easy to understand. You can also download quizzes for training and documentation purposes.

You no longer need to request videos, nor do you need any coupon codes. The BCG Safety Source Video-On-Demand Training Library is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week and it is entirely self-serve.

How Do I Get Started?

The account setup process is easy; after you and your BCG Safety Specialist set up your account, you will receive a welcome email that will contain your username and a link to set up your password. Once complete, there is nothing left to do but select the desired video and train your workforce.

Please forward this flyer to your IT department to ensure your company's firewall will not prevent the welcome email from reaching you. The following information will help your IT department determine if the firewall is preventing delivery:
