

Broker Engagement Agreement

We are a nationwide, direct private lender to single-family (1-4 units) residential real estate investors. With more than 3,000 loans under our belt, we offer the fastest, simplest and most dependable process in the industry.

Brokers are instrumental to our success, so we are excited to work with you. As with all successful relationships, it is important to outline what each party can expect from the other.

Our Commitment: here is what we promise you as one of our brokers:

1. We will regularly provide you with up-to-date materials describing our loan products and underwriting requirements;
2. You can earn up to three points on loans that you broker to us.
3. On the Rental360 loan program we will pay you one point out of our origination fee. You can charge your client up to two points on top of our origination fee. You will earn one point from us on all additional loans to a client that close within one year of the closing of that client's first loan with us; and
4. We will protect your compensation by disclosing it on the HUD and having you paid at settlement of the transaction.

Broker's Commitment: here is what we expect from you as someone who will broker loans to us:

1. You will comply with all laws and regulations related to originating these types of loans;
2. We don't lend to consumers so you will only send us non-owner occupier, business purpose loans;
3. All documentation and other information you submit to us will be true, complete and accurate to the best of your knowledge;
4. You will cooperate with us in providing us with the information and documentation to close the loans you submit;
5. You will fully and fairly describe the important terms of our loan products to your prospective clients before you submit the loan application to us; and
6. You will not receive more than a total of 3% of the original unpaid balance on a loan that you broker to us.

We look forward to working with you. If you have any questions, please contact your account executive.

Sincerely,

Ryan Painter
Vice President of Sales
Visio Financial Services Inc.

	6 City, state, and ZIP code
	7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
