Why Network?

1. "Everyone lives by selling something."
2. Education, training & talent will only take you so far.
3. You don't know who knows who.
4. You don't know who's looking for you.
5. People are interesting – as people.

Who Can Network?

- Anyone can network.
- Absolutely anyone can network.
- Networking is something that anyone and everyone can learn.
- Networking is something that anyone and everyone must learn.

Where Do You Network?

- Work
- Conferences and trade shows
- Training
- Career fairs and job fairs
- Social situations – community events, recreational events, parties
- Everywhere!

Professional Associations

- Joining isn't networking – participation is networking.
- Communicate often, through multiple channels (mail, email, website, telephone).
- Pair up veterans with new members.
- People like to be asked, so ask them!

Online Networking

- Multiple channels – LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook.
- Groups, topic-specific sites (LinkedIn groups, Blogs, Goodreads.com, RunnersWorld).
- Joining isn't networking – participation is networking.
- Think before you post – the Internet is forever!

Managing Multiple Sites

Posted by Mark Fallon on Jul 30, 2014 9:43:47 AM

"Congratulations! Since you've done such a good job with the Boston operation, we're now putting you in charge of the New York and New Jersey operations as well."

Despite the positive tone in my boss's voice, I wasn't sure that was good news. Yes, we'd been able to make some positive changes in the Boston mail and distribution center. But could I effectively manage three operations in three different

How Do You Network?

Practical Exercise

This is great, but I'm still too much an introvert...

1. Don't go it alone.
2. Practice.
3. Listening is good.
4. This is a survival skill – you have to network!
5. _____
