MESSAGE RECAP:

Pastor Ben gave a unique message this past weekend on the subject of race. As Christ followers we are called to respond to set aside our biases and work towards commonality that is committed to understanding. Jesus wants us to see all people the way He does.

3. What does bias look like? How can bias lead to resentment?
4. When it comes to race, how do we make God our first priority?
5. How does being a Christian change your approach to the subject of racism?
6. Name one thing you could begin doing this week to allow God to above your biases.
7. Differences bring division more often than unity. Unity begins with seeing what you have in common with another. How do we develop eyes to see commonality?
8. Jesus was accepting of all. To follow Jesus is to see all people the way He did, and love them. How can you replace the tendencies towards resentment in your life with the love of Jesus?
