NCIA'S
POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE

National Cannabis Industry Association — TheCannabisIndustry.org

WHAT IS THE NCIA-PAC?

NCIA-PAC is a nonpartisan Political Action Committee (PAC) for cannabis professionals and provides contributions to members of Congress and candidates who support legislation that is favorable to the legal cannabis industry. NCIA-PAC gives cannabis professionals a united voice in the political process. The NCIA-PAC is also a critical component of NCIA's lobbying efforts. It gives our members a voice in supporting elected officials who help the industry by promoting helpful policy and defeating harmful legislation.

HOW ARE PAC DOLLARS USED?

All PAC contributions are used to support political candidates or committees. PACs can contribute up to $5,000 to a federal candidate committee per election. PACs may receive up to $5,000 from any eligible individual, PAC, or party committee per calendar year.

As of June 30, 2018, NCIA-PAC expenditures totaled just over $50,000 in the mid-term election cycle, with top donations to the following campaigns:

$5,000+ CONTRIBUTIONS

- McClintock for Congress
- New Dem PAC
- Rand PAC
- Rohrabacher for Congress

$2,000+ CONTRIBUTIONS

- Barbara Lee for Congress
- Heller for Senate
- Huffman for Congress
- Katie Porter for Congress

$1,000+ CONTRIBUTIONS

- Buck for Colorado
- Kurt Schrader for Congress
- Citizens for Boyle
- McCormick for Congress
  Denny Heck for Congress
- Richard Neal for Congress
- Diana DeGette for Congress
- Rosen for Nevada
- Eric Brakey for U.S. Senate
- Salud Carbajal for Congress
- Friends of Matt Gaetz
- Susie Lee for Congress
- Jamie Raskin for Congress
- Titus for Congress
- Joe Neguse for Congress
- Zach Scott for Congress
- Katie Hill for Congress

HOW CAN I GET INVOLVED?

Federal campaign finance laws require NCIA to get permission from an authorized representative of your member business before we can ask for contributions.

NCIA members interested in getting involved with the PAC should contact:
Info@TheCannabisIndustry.org
(888) 683-5650