

HOAQ™ Eliminates HOA and Condo Dues Liability

Comprehensive Research, Verification, Management, and Processing of Home Owner and Condo Owner Payments at Scale, with 100% Guaranteed Accuracy

Delinquent home owner and condo association dues can be hidden in transactions, putting lenders and investors at risk. Though an association lien is junior to tax and certain mortgage liens, associations can still pursue foreclosure for unpaid dues. NTS research, certification, and management of home owner association (HOA) and condo association dues eliminates the risk. NTS has proven experience and established relationships with thousands of home owner and condo associations across the United States and its territories.

The NTS platform is proprietary software that contains millions of records from thousands of taxing entities, home owner and condo associations, government agencies and other sources. NTS leverages this real-time data and relationships with these organizations to research and validate payment records and manage payment processing. NTS provides these services for some of the largest lenders and investors in the U.S. with 100% accuracy guaranteed.
