

Free Resident Engagement Resources Under COVID-19 Restrictions

As time marches on, we in long-term care and senior living find ourselves adjusting as best we can to a new (and thankfully temporary) normal. This is definitely true for those working in communities, fighting to keep their residents safe and healthy...and engaged.

Among the most common challenges we're seeing from communities is how to maintain resident engagement and morale during this time of serious COVID-19 proximity restrictions. We've surfed the web a bit and borrowed from others' lists to bring you this quick group of resources appropriate for our audience. Here's hoping you find some gems for your residents!
