

Paid Sick Leave Laws Infographic

The paid sick leave trend is gaining momentum, with 3 jurisdictions passing laws that take effect in 2014. As of March 2014, this brings the total to 8, a number that will surely grow. Our latest infographic provides a chronological history of paid sick leave laws. Do you have employees in any of these jurisdictions and are you compliant?

What to Watch for:

Various states and municipalities are currently in the process of enacting or evaluating paid sick leave legislation. The Washington State House passed a bill at the end of January which is now under consideration by the Senate and Vermont and California are working toward similar legislation. On March 20, 2014, New York City's new mayor expanded the Earned Sick Time Act, 10 days before the Act was scheduled to take effect on April 1, 2014. Presagia monitors and manages 450 pieces of leave legislation and 200 pieces of pending legislation, keeping employers up to date as leave laws evolve.