Already using dashboards? You can gain more benefit now! Not using dashboards? well, now you'll see what you're missing!

As of SAP Business One 9.1, version for SAP HANA PL05, you can design HTML5 pervasive dashboards, by using the enhanced Dashboard Designer.

You can drill down to the detailed information behind the numbers and open SAP Business One forms such as Business Partner Master Data or marketing document, run a search and much more, and everything is in the context of the displayed data.
