We understand that COVID-19 has affected a large part of the population, and you have indicated that your employment with: _____
(List name of employer and telephone number if related to loss of employment or reduction in hours) has been affected. In accordance with California law, all residents are responsible for any rent payments due under the rental agreement. I understand that I am responsible for the full monthly rent payment. At this time the resident(s) located at the above-mentioned address are asking for an accommodation due to:

- Financial impacts related to loss of employment directly related to COVID-19.
- Financial impact-reduction of work hours directly related to COVID-19, resulting in loss of income.
- Medical expenses attributable to COVID-19.
- Financial impact due to caring for oneself, or for a family member directly related to COVID-19 (This may be caring for a child, or family member afflicted with COVID-19, or impact from school closures related to COVID-19), which has caused a financial impact directly related to COVID-19.

I/we will only be able to make a payment of: $ _____ of the total rent of $ _____
for the month of _____ (include month and year). I/we are requesting an accommodation for the balance of the rent owed.

- Proof of my/our inability to meet my/our financial responsibility is attached. Proof of my/our inability to meet my/our financial responsibility is not attached.

Resident(s) to retain and provide proof of inability to meet his/her financial responsibility. This documentation to be provided to the landlord in accordance with the law. Resident(s) remains obligated to repay full rent in a timely manner and may face eviction after the eviction moratorium is lifted if rent is in default. If proof is not provided as required and verifiable, and directly attributable to COVID-19, the agreement is canceled, and the resident is responsible for the monthly rent.

Proof may be in the form of loss of employment or medical documentation, copies of business records, bank statements before and during COVID-19 drop-in income, employer pay stubs, or letter from an employer notifying tenant of reduction in compensable hours. Resident acknowledges that the Owner/Manager is not in default of the Rental Agreement.
