LEARNING OBJECT TYPES

| | |
|---|--|
|  | Read Its are the primary learning tools within a course. Each Read It provides the essential instructional content to support a specific learning objective. Each Read It has an accompanying Show It. |
|  | Practice Its provide the opportunity for students to practice new skills and concepts. These possess online and offline activities and problem sets. Answers are provided within the learning object. |
|  | Show Its are non-graded activities that allow students to demonstrate mastery of a specific learning objective. Teachers can elect to make these gradable. Each Show It has an accompanying Answer Key. |
|  | Answer Keys are available for each of the Show Its and Apply Its. They provide correct answers and detailed feedback. If teachers make a Show It or Apply It gradable, the Answer Key can be hidden from the students. |
|  | Apply Its are assessments that cover content from multiple lessons. Apply Its can be cumulative projects that allow students to demonstrate mastery of several learning objectives and standards. Teachers can elect to make these gradable. Each Apply It has an accompanying Answer Key. |
|  | Assess Its are graded assessments that allow students to demonstrate mastery. These appear as online auto-graded and uploaded teacher-graded assessments. Mastery Assess Its are larger, topic-based online assessments. These include question types such as multiple choice, multiple answer, ordering, matching, and essay. |
|  | Watch Its contain engaging videos to support the lesson content and enhance the student learning experience. |
|  | Play Its contain exciting games to reinforce skills and are aligned to one or more standards. |
|  | Reinforce Its are designed to reinforce specific concepts and skills. These objects provide an alternative approach to learning. |
|  | Extend Its are designed to help students extend their knowledge in specific content areas. |

As an administrator, I appreciate and am assured that the Lincoln Empowered content is aligned to standards and promotes higher level thinking. The fun videos make the curriculum particularly engaging, and the coursework is organized and easy to navigate.

Dynamic Online Activities

Combining rich online media with tactile offline activities, our PreK-8 curriculum emphasizes and reinforces learning content in an engaging, consistent manner. Developed by experienced educators, Lincoln Empowered Elementary and Middle School courses promote activities that incorporate real-life scenarios and offer opportunities for critical thinking. Our instructional videos prepare and inspire your students to learn, while our interactive games give them fun ways to master challenging concepts.

Tailored Learning Pathways

The multimodal approach of Lincoln Empowered allows your students to decide for themselves which learning pathways are most effective. If comprehending the Read It lesson text proves challenging, students can explore corresponding Watch It videos or Play It games to reinforce their understanding of the concept(s). Best of all, the flexibility of our curriculum permits content from lower grades to be pulled up for students who require additional support or from other courses to be pulled in for students who crave external challenges. This enables you to further tailor your students' learning and better ensure they are meeting learning standards.
