Kim is an audit manager in our Not-For-Profit Group with more than 10 years of accounting and audit experience.

Kim's specialization in serving social services, community development and education-related organizations stems from her deep expertise with federal funding, particularly audits conducted in accordance with the Single Audit Act.

Additionally, she has experience with many other funding sources and their compliance requirements, including the City of Philadelphia Subrecipient Audit Guide and the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development.

Kim maintains in-depth knowledge of the Form 990 and all of the intricacies that not-for-profit organizations should consider. She regularly helps clients utilize the Form 990 as a marketing tool, not just an IRS filing.

Each year, she also develops personalized presentations to communicate annual Accounting Standards Updates to clients.

Kim maintains membership in the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Kim is a passionate and active member of the community. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Pennel Mental Health Center, a not-for-profit organization providing psychiatric and social services to residents of Lower Bucks County, Pennsylvania. She also is a member of the Young Friends Network of EducationWorks, a not-for-profit organization providing educational support programs to children in Philadelphia.

She is a graduate of Temple University, where she earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a concentration in accounting from the Fox School of Business.
